THIRD-PARTY DEFENDANT

ORDER

On May 2, 2006, the Court entered an order granting Defendant/Third-Party Plaintiff Georgia-Pacific Corporation's Motion to Non-Suit Third Party Complaint Against Third-Party Defendant P.M.C. Construction, Inc. (Doc. 14). The Court has been informed that Georgia-Pacific Corporation and P.M.C. Construction's settlement negotiations are still ongoing and this order was entered before these settlement negotiations are completed. Upon consideration, the Court finds the Order granting Defendant/Third-Party Plaintiff Georgia-Pacific Corporation's Motion to Non-Suit Third Party Complaint Against Third-Party Defendant P.M.C. Construction, Inc. (Doc. 14) should be and hereby is vacated and set aside and the Court will hold in abeyance its ruling on this motion until Georgia-Pacific Corporation and P.M.C. Construction have completed their settlement negotiations.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 3rd day of May, 2006.
